22 On this day the Governor issued the following

Proclamation

Another year has passed, its trials, its victories, its rewards its punishments, its blessings have been recorded, its fruits have been gathered, and preparations are now made to bid farewell to the year 1860 and welcome the coming year. For this purpose I, Aaron S. Lewis Governor of the State of Illinois, do issue this my proclamation, setting apart Thursday the 27th day of December next as a day to be observed by the people of this State as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to Almighty God, and I would recommend to the people that they lay aside secular business, and on said day in their respective places of worship

Their late burthen of our sister States have suffered from the devastations caused by hostile armies in their midst, their fertile lands have been drenched in the crimson gore of their fellow citizens, for all these and countless other blessings which God in His goodness has vouchsafed to us, for His loving kindness. His constant care, and abundant mercies, we should with grateful hearts thank and praise him.

In testimony whereof I, Aaron S. Lewis, Governor of the State of Illinois, in accordance with an act entitled an act to establish and regulate the Executive Department of this State approved the 9th day of December 1818 a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer to Almighty God, and I would recommend to the people that they lay aside secular business, and on said day in their respective places of worship

James T. Lewis

" 28 On this day the Governor issued the following

Proclamation

Whereas, Under the recent calls for troops, considerable complaint was made of the excessive enrollments of the State; and whereas, by special authority obtained from the War Department, the draft was temporarily postponed, in order that the enrollments lists might be properly revised and corrected; and whereas, the time allowed for this purpose was necessarily short, and it was found impossible in the more distant parts of this State to accomplish the same prior to the day fixed for the draft; and whereas, authority is now given by the Provost Marshal General for the further correction and revision of the enrollment lists, by striking therefrom the names of all persons improperly enrolled and by adding thereto the names of all persons liable to draft which have been omitted, as hereinafter specified; and whereas, this is a matter in which the people of this State are deeply interested, now therefore to the end that the troops hereinafter called for from this State (if any) may not be disproportionate to those called for from other States, and that the quotas assigned to the States may be justly and equally distributed between the several towns and wards thereof; I, James T. Lewis, Governor of the State of Wisconsin do issue this my proclamation, requesting and recommending that all good citizens, and particularly the local civil and military authorities shall make timely

And heartily approve the appointment of Provost Marshal General's Office bearing date this 15th. inst.),

"The attention of the Boards of Enrollment is called to section 6 of the act amendatory of the Enrollment act which is in the following words. Viz:

"Section 6. And be it further enacted, that Boards of Enrollment shall enroll all persons liable to draft under the provisions of this act, and the act to which this is an amendment, whose names have been omitted by the proper enrolling officers; all persons who shall arrive at the age of twenty years before the draft; all aliens who shall declare their intention to become citizens; all persons discharged from the military or naval service of the United States who have not been in such service two years during the present war; all persons who have not been exempted under the provisions of the second section of the act to which this is an amendment, but who are not exempted by the provisions of this act; and said Boards of Enrollment shall release and discharge from draft all persons who, between the time of the enrollment and the draft, shall have arrived at the age of forty-five years, and shall strike the names of such persons from the enrollment".

"It is to be borne in mind by the Boards, that their duties in regard to the correction of the enrollment do not cease with its revision as recently completed or now in progress. On the contrary, this revision and correction of these lists is a continuous duty, to which the labors of all Boards must be directed. The names of all persons liable to do military duty taking up their residence in a sub-district, as well as all in the subdistrict who from time to time become liable, shall be added to the Enrollment lists; and the names of persons who enlist into the military or naval services, or remove permanently from a district, or whose liability terminates while in it, will be stricken off; and in case of removal, whenever it is practicable the Boards of Enrollment of the district to which the person removes will be notified, and he will be enrolled by that Board.

"The Boards of Enrollment shall have copies of the enrollment lists open to the examination of the public at all proper times, and shall give public notice that any person may appear before the Boards and have any name stricken off from the list, if he can show to the satisfaction of the Board, that the person named is not properly enrolled on account of ——

"1st. Aliens; 2d. Non-residence; 3d. Over ages; 4th. Permanent disability of such a degree as to render the person not a proper subject for enrollment under the law and regulations. "5th. Having served in the military or naval service two years during this present war, and been honorably discharged.

"Tribal officers, clergymen and all other prominent citizens, are invited to appear at all times before the Board to point out errors in the lists and to aid in the correction and revision thereof."

And also to the following extracts from instructions to Col. Lovell, A. A. Provost, Marshal General of this State accompanying said circular.

"1st, is plainly for the interest of each subdistrict to have stricken from the lists all names improperly enrolled, because an excess of names increases the quota called for from such sub-district; and that it is equally for the interest of each person enrolled in a given subdistrict, liable to do military duty, because the greater the number to be drawn from the less the chance that any particular individual will be drawn.

"2d is the personal interest of every enrolled man that the quota in which he is concerned shall not be made too large, and that his own chances for draft shall not be unjustly increased. Both these objects will be attained if all parties will aid in striking out the wrong names, and putting in the right ones.

"Especially is this the interest of those drafted men who, by putting in substitutes themselves liable to draft, have secured exemption which, by the terms of the law, holds good only, until the present enrollment is exhausted in their subdistrict.

"Men who are over forty-five years of age and in consequence excused by law from the performance of duty in the field, owe it to the cause and to the country to take a zealous and active part in the correction of the enrollment lists — as military service of the first importance.

"The law requires that quotas shall be assigned in proportion to the enrollment; and this fairness and justice of this mode of determining the amount of military service due from each and every section of the country cannot be doubted, if the enrollment is made as nearly perfect as it is practicable to make it. The amount of service due to the nation from every town and county is thus laid fairly and plainly before the citizens; and we are sure that a higher motive than selfish interest will prompt all to do their share in perfecting the enrollment, and secure a just and efficient execution of the laws for raising troops, whenever it became necessary to apply them.

"In order with the state and local authorities, and prevent the foregoing views to them, and secure if possible prompt and practical assistance from them in the enrollment lists. The subject should receive the attention of the town, precinct, and ward meetings and committees.

"Deputy Provost marshals and special agents will be required to devote all the labor possible to this service in their respective counties. They must communicate with the local authorities, clergymen, and other prominent citizens, as to the accuracy of the present lists, and the corrections necessary to be made. "As far as practicable they should be required to visit each sub-district, carrying with them a copy of the list for such sub-district, which should be examined with the poll books of the sub-district, and having corrected it, a true copy plainly written, should be posted at the places of voting in the sub-district, with a notice attached thereto, calling upon the citizens to suggest any further corrections that may have been overlooked."

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the great seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

In the proper discharge of my official duties it may not be necessary to use force. But should any one order cannot readily obtain the assistance of the powers invested without force may be used to the full extent of the law. It must be borne in mind that the laws of the United States must be executed. I have no sympathy with those who wilfully violate them. Combinations of any such kind to defeat the ends of the laws are highly criminal. I shall endeavor to discharge that duty faithfully. I shall do so peacefully if I can, forcibly if I must.
